Monitor Board Of Trade

Hold Regular Meeting

The Monitor Board of Trade held its regular meeting on Monday evening last, with 25 members present. President Larder in the chair. Minutes read and adopted. Communications were read from Dr. Laidlaw, re the Hospital. From the department of Telephones. From the Associated Boards of Trade.

Under the heading of new business, the first call was re the Sports day, and after a lengthy discussion in which all participated it was decided to hold Monitor Sports Day on FRIDAY JUNE 24th, and also that the Board handle the day similar to last year. That is with the minimum of expense and the maximum of pleasure.

At the meeting of the executive held on Tuesday the various committees were appointed, and these will be published later.

A delegation from the Baseball club was then heard in regard to the engaging of a pitcher for the team. It was pointed out that for the past two years, Monitor has suffered in this national pastime, owing to the lack of a pitcher, and that as there is at present no one here who can hold the mound with any degree of certainty it was shown that if there is to be ball here this season, a pitcher must be brought into town. Apparently the team have a man "on the hook" and all that is necessary now is to find him work close into town. The matter was referred back to the Management of the club for action, with the understanding that the Board of Trade is behind any feasible action to keep the man here.

The next matter for discussion was that of the road leading from town to the railway crossing east. Undoubtedly there will be some grading done there almost right away.

The meeting adjourned at about 11.15 p.m. to meet again on the first Monday in May, and at the call of the President, ad interim.

It is to be hoped that all who possibly can will make it a point to join up with the Board of Trade as soon as opportunity offers. Any gimpepooper can be a knocker—You be a booster.

Another New Building

Erected on Railway Avenue

Mr. Thos. Ulph, proprietor of "My Wardrobe" and agent for the "Meadow Creamery" is building new quarters on his lot on Railway Avenue, and will probably move into the same about the beginning of next week Mr. McMinn is the contractor.

Mr. Ulph, of course, needs no introduction to the citizens of the district. He has been here for a number of years, and has always been connected with the progressive spirit, for which Monitor is justly famous. For a long time Tom was Baritone soloist in the Monitor Citizens Band, and is a keen musician yet.

In spite of adverse conditions prevailing throughout the district, the business of "My Wardrobe" and the cream station has gradually increased until new and larger quarters were necessary.

Mr. Ulph is deserving of the support of all citizens of the district and it is to be hoped that all will remember his new place of business, next to Horsch's garage on Railway Avenue, and act accordingly.

Don't forget the Joe Williams Company at the Big Hall to-Night.

Tennis Season Opens

The tennis season opened with a bang on Sunday last, many enthusiasts taking part in the opening ceremony. Naturally, we were present, and took an active part in nine sets. Consequently we felt like nine pins on Monday.

Local Happenings

TO-NIGHT—THE BIG HALL

Judging from the reports of our exchanges, the Joe Williams Company will present a programme that will be a "humdinger". If you don't believe us, come to the Big hall to-night and find out for yourself.

The Lailey-Trimble expert has been experting at the Pioneer Store this week.

W. G. MacKenzie, Esq., Barrister, paid a brief business visit to Calgary the early part of this week.

Apparently the Kennedy Drug Store has at last disposed of its Xmas stock of toys. At any rate the sign, advertising the fact that Xmas toys were on sale was taken down last week-end.

Mr. E. Buchanan is the first man in town to start the beautifying of Monitor by painting his house. Mr. H. Grayburn, painter and decorator has the work in hand.

Mr. G. H. French, lately of Boston Mass., and formerly of Pemukan Alta., returned to that locality last week and is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. A. Baxter, prior to his departure for California, at which place he has taken up a homestead.

Owing to unforeseen circumstances, Geo. Roe, Alfalfa expert of Altario was unable to be present to address the Farmers meeting last Saturday, and wired his regrets at being held away. However, Mr. Roe is donating $20 worth of his best Alfalfa seed for the School Fair. This donation will prove of especial value to the children as seed similar to this is worth $1 per pound. Each child will get a liberal sample, and in 1922 we are giving a prize for the most and best seed produced from this sample.

Stonelaw local U. F. W. A. will meet on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lush. Meeting will open promptly at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Hart Sec.

Several citizens have taken advantage of the change of weather and have cleaned up their yards and lanes, making a very conspicuous difference against those that have not. Apparently spring is here. It is now up to all to do their bit and "clean up" good and properly and have the refuse hauled away; thereby adding greatly to the beauty of the village.

Canada Needs More People

In the development of the natural resources of Canada, and the resultant increase in traffic for the transportation systems of the Dominion, it is to be found the only permanent solution of the problem now presented by the annually recurring, and increasing, deficits in the operation of the National Railways. This was the view expressed in this column last week, and further study of the question only serves to confirm and strengthen that opinion.

It is gratifying to note, too, that the soundness of this suggested solution is being urged more and more upon the Federal Government and the people of Canada. Such influential men as Hon. T. A. Crerar, President Beatty of the C.P.R., Sir Frederick Williams Taylor, general manager of the Bank of Montreal, and other leaders in Canadian affairs, support this view.

If in the development of our natural resources lies the solution of our railway problems—and if increased business will solve the railway problem it will likewise assist to solve other national problems of taxation and economics—then the question presents itself as to which of our many resources attention should first be turned as best calculated to quickly respond to well directed Government and individual effort. Also, in the light of existing world conditions, which of our resources will make the strongest appeal to the people of the world? Again, which of our resources, if more fully developed, will react upon and operate to bring about the development of other resources?

There can be no two opinions as to the richest, the most important, the basic natural resources of this country. It is to be found in the agricultural lands spread over the Dominion from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Valuable as are the mines, the forests, the fisheries of Canada, and necessary as they are to the upbuilding of a strong and self-contained nation, they individually and collectively take second place to agriculture.

The first essential to the development of the untilled acres of Canada's fertile agricultural lands is population. Without people the lands must remain idle and unproductive. Lacking workers on the land, crops cannot be produced. Unless our unsettled lands are peopled with workers who will produce, and through their production create traffic for the railways, all the economies in the world will not result in making those railways profitable.

Furthermore, it is only through the placing of people on the land that the necessary demand will be created for manufactured products of all kinds, the demand for which will, in turn, force the development of our mineral and timber resources, and thereby create still further traffic for the railways and provide employment for an ever increasing body of artisans and skilled workers in shop and factory.

Another million of people settled on farms in Canada and producing wealth from the soil would result in such a volume of produce for export in the shape of grains and livestock that many of our now unprofitable lines of railway would become paying propositions, because for every dollar's worth of produce shipped out, the people on the land would purchase a dollar's worth of goods to be shipped in.

Yet there are people in this country who are advocating the adoption of the most stringent regulations to prevent immigration into Canada. Nothing could be more shortsighted. All will agree that the bars should be kept up against the mentally, morally and physically deficient. Canada does not want such as these, who are not producers, but who become a menace and burden to the state. But Canada does need and must have a large increase in immigration of the right type of people if it is to develop and prosper.

The most prosperous period in Canadian history was during those years when immigration was flowing into this country at an unprecedented rate and the vacant lands of the Dominion were being brought under cultivation. Those were the years when, with the incoming of these pioneer settlers, our cities, towns and villages grew apace; our railways were busy and constructing new branch lines as feeders; our manufacturers were constructing larger factory buildings and employing many more workers, and activity was manifest in the development of natural resources of all kinds.

With the falling off in immigration, and with large national obligations incurred for transportation and other services which were provided to meet the expected continuance of the influx of new settlers, the slump came. Then the war put a stop to all immigration for over five years, while at the same time it took its toll of millions of human lives.

The opportunity again presents itself to secure a large volume of immigration to Canada, and immigrants of the right type, too. Sound national policy demands that full advantage be taken of the opportunity. If there ever was a time when Canada needed new people to assist in the development of our great resources, it is now. Immigration should be encouraged, and there should be no trouble in selecting and eliminating the small percentage of undesirables at the port of embarkation. The great majority of immigrants come to Canada to better their condition, and have a fairly clear idea in mind of what they are going to do. They should be encouraged to come, and a helping hand and all reasonable assistance and a warm welcome extended on their arrival.

Good Profit in Poultry

Alberta Farmer Who Kept Record Shows that Money Can be Made Out of this Side Line.

An example of the profits that may be made with poultry on western prairie farms is given by W. E. Derkard who farms near Bassano, Alta. On January 1st, 1935, he had on his farm two hundred and fifty-eight White Leghorn hens. From these hens they obtained and sold eggs to the value of $656.35. They used and set eggs to the value of $283.00. They also sold $105.79 worth of chickens and the value of the poultry they used at table was $14.10. This makes a total of $1,060.14. Against this feed to the value of $73.99 was bought, and about $200 of grain raised on the farm was given to the hens. The net profit, therefore, amounted to $786.15—not a bad return from a side line.

THANKFUL MOTHERS

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones, she would use nothing else. The Tablets give such results that the mother has nothing but words of praise and thankfulness for them. Among the thousands of mothers throughout Canada who praise the Tablets is Mrs. David A. Anderson, New Glasgow, N.S., who writes:—"I have used Baby's Own Tablets for my children and from my experience I would not be without them. I would urge every other mother to keep a box of the Tablets in the house." The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach; drive out constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and make teething easy. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Cardston Irrigation Project

Alberta Government Will Irrigate About Fifteen Thousand Acres.

The Alberta Government consulting engineer, D. W. Hays, has just completed an examination on behalf of the government of the United Irrigation District, which has been formed for the purpose of irrigating about fifteen thousand acres of first-class farm land near Cardston in Southern Alberta.

Mr. Hays says the project is quite feasible and is, in fact, the simplest proposition he has ever met with. There are no difficulties to surmount and the construction work can be carried out without any large or expensive machinery. It is expected that work on this project will be begun this summer.

For years I have never considered my stock of household remedies complete unless a bottle of Minard's Liniment was included. For bugs, bruises, sprains, frostbites or chilblains it is excellent, and I know of no better remedy for a severe cold in the head, or that will give more immediate relief than to inhale from the bottle through the nasal organs.

And as to my supply of veterinary remedies it is essential, as it has in very many instances proven its value. A recent experience in re-claiming what was supposed to be a lost section of a valuable cow's udder has again demonstrated its great worth and prompts me to recommend it in the highest terms to all who have a herd of cows, large or small. I think I am safe in saying among all the patient medicines there is none that covers as large a field of usefulness as does Minard's Liniment. A real treasure good for man or beast.

Effective Plan to Destroy Hoppers

Flame Throwers in France Meet Success in Exterminating Locusts.

How the flame thrower troops of the French army provided large quantities of freshly roasted meat for the poultry of the country and at the same time ridded the fields of crop-destroying grasshoppers and locusts is told by Dr. L. Howard, chief entomologist of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, who recently inspected insect-fighting methods of that country. The hoppers were swept into great heaps by living circles of soldiers and then exterminated by the flame.

COMMUNICATION

Ottawa, April 14th,

Dear Sir:-

I am enclosing copy of an order-in-council just passed appointing a Commission to investigate the grain trade and outlining their duties. It will be observed that each of the three Prairie Provinces is represented by Mr. Lincoln Goldie of Guelph, Ont.

It is most desirable that this Commission when they sit should get all the information possible from the farmers' standpoint as to the abuses undoubtedly exist in the grain trade, and where possible definite and specific information should be given. I am not sure at present time what the programme of the Commission will be as to where they will hold their sittings and when, but undoubtedly will be given general publicity through the press later on.

I consider it desirable that every locality should be apprised fully of the nature of this inquiry and for that reason I am sending you full particulars at hand up to the present time.

Yours very truly,
W. J. Blair.

NOTE,

Owing to lack of space and an insufficient type we regret our inability to publish the Order-in-Council referred to by Mr. Blair. However, those that are so desirous, are welcome to call at the News office and read the same.

"Hello," exclaimed his father, "where've you been?"

"I stayed with Bill Paisley last night," explained Boy. "You know we had Amos Broadbrook locked up at his place. We fell asleep for a few minutes and Amos got away. Somebody outside helped him—his brother Hank likely. Anyway, he's got clean away."

"And where do you suppose he has gone?" asked Hallibut.

"Across the border likely," returned Boy. "We're going after him, sir, and we've got to start right now, 'cause the creek's risin' and gettin' dangerous. In half an hour we can't get across."

Hallibut looked big. "Big McTavish, then he turned to Boy."

"Do you think he'll go across the line?" he asked.

"Yes."

"Then, let the poor beggar go. I've promised Gloss that I won't prosecute him."

Boy whistled.

"Well," he commenced, then turned abruptly away.

He was glad, glad, glad. He did not know why, nor care why. He could not bear to think of anything of the bush-world being shut up without a chance of escape. He passed outside and Hallibut followed him.

"Boy," said the big man, "I guess you think me an old fool, don't you?"

He went over and laid his hand affectionately on the young man's arm.

"I guess I'm getting old and rather childish, Boy. I've just received one of God's great gifts, and there is nothing much in my old heart this spring morning but joy—joy I've had to do without for many a year. Well, Boy, you know how the old trees of the bush lean when they've lived their full years. You know how they topple and sag. You have seen them do it, haven't you? But sometimes a strong young sapling props them up and they go on living and throwing out their leaves—but they're not standing alone."

His arm slipped about Boy's shoulders.

"Boy," he said huskily, "I need a prop. I want to hang on because I've just found real happiness. But I'm sagging, lad; I'm just an old tree."

Boy turned and grasped the Colonel's hand. He felt a tear splash down and his throat tightened and burned.

"I guess I understand," he said softly. "I've growed deep into this and there's always a saplin' you can lean on if you care to."

He sprang away down the path toward the grove, and the Colonel watched him, a deep glow in his heart.

From the kitchen came the savory smell of frying bacon and, Gloss's happy voice singing an old-fashioned song.

When they all sat down to breakfast, Big McTavish bowed his head and asked God's blessing on his bounty in these words:

"We thank thee for feedin' us, O God. We thank thee for thy many mercies, and we thank thee greatly for the sunshine after the darkness."

And Granny from her end of the table added a fervent "Amen."

After breakfast the Colonel drew Big McTavish aside and held a whispered controversy with him. Then he turned to the "little ma" and, holding her hand in both of his, said:

"There is no reward that earth can give you great enough for me and mine, but the great reward awaits you all. I have received a great and wonderful blessing," stroking the brown curls of the tall girl beside him, "ah, so great a blessing! I am going now, but I will come back soon, very soon, again."

He turned, his eyes blinking, and glanced about the room at the others.

"God bless you all," he said heartily, and strode outside, followed by Big McTavish and Boy.

Coming up the path was a tired, dripping horse, bestrode by a weary, dripping rider.

"Dick," murmured the Colonel. "Of course, I might have known that he would come searching for me."

"Why, lad," he called, "you're a bigger ninner than I thought you. You're half drowned."

Boy ran forward and helped support the man as he dismounted.

"What's wrong, Dick, lad?" asked Hallibut, catching sight of the new arrival's face.

Dick fumbled in one of his pockets. "Here, I found it tucked to a tree outside the lawn, sir."

Hallibut took the letter. It was a dirty, crumpled thing, and scrawled across it were the words, "Kenul Halbut."

"Listen," said the Colonel, "it's from Amos Broadbrook. This is what he says:

"I'm invited to git even with Smyth on a Watson but they had skip-d fer the stats but I have burnt the stor an hope you will be pleased I am goin away an haint ever comin back don't you put your dogs onto me i be goin to live state."

"Amos Broadbrook."

The men exchanged glances.

"Did he do it, Dick?" asked the Colonel.

"Yes, sir, the place was in ashes as I passed."

"So endeth the—" began Hallibut, but he was abruptly checked by a wet, bedraggled something that hurled itself against him with a low whine of joy.

"Old Zip," cried the Colonel, "you poor, crippled old devil, Zip. Where—how—"

He staggered back, wiping the wet kiss from his cheek, and tears of laughter stood in his eyes.

"E jist wouldn't stay 'ome, sir," stammered Dick. "E chewed three good tiercins clean through, sir, I git it you, 'e did, sir."

The Colonel said a most extraordinary thing.

"He'd crawl through hell for me, boys, that old dog. And he's come day because we've always shared our joys and sorrows together. Come and meet little Gloss, Zip."

CHAPTER XXXI.

A Mat'ing Time.

Spring held the world of the Bush-whackers in her soft arms. She awoke the sleeping things with her warm breath. Her light shone on land and marsh and sky. The great trees shivered and stretched their long arms wakefully. The dry rushes along the creek quivered and sang in low whistles, as the blue waters laved their drowsy roots. When the fashed out at intervals the quiet waters of the flats would break, here and there, and the flashing body of a pike would leap upward with a mighty flap and, tumbling back, would twirl and dart from rush-clump to rushclump, her mate, a long, notched fish, following slowly, one length behind, his blue-green dorsalfin standing up above the water like a tiny sail. On the wood and marsh mat'ing time, the strong, swift fish claimed first right.

They sought the quiet waters even when the ice still crashed and ground, onward and outward. Up against the cold current a school of them would move steadily, parting and mingling again, a fragment detaching itself here where the rat-run offered a haven, a fragment detaching itself there where the quiet water of the flats rested beneath the white, smoky fog. This was the pike's spawning season, their play-time and love-time. In the early morning sunbeams they would dart and leap and play until the shallow waters of the rushland were white with foam, and there, after the manner of their kind, they would mate and drift and move out into the deeper waters again in twos and threes and fives, and seek the harbored spawning-beds among the rushes further inland.

Next came the wee, brown song-thrush, tumbling, an animated fragment, from a fleeing snowcloud, dropping from the sky and alighting with a low chirp of joy on the bare twig of a baby tree of the woodland. Its sweet, shrill little song, simple and glad, would travel into the quiet places of the wood. "Gray-bird" it was called, and last to leave in drabry fall, first to come back in springtime, it was Drift Dave's choice of all the birds he loved so well.

It dissolves the lime and acid accumulation in the muscles and joints so these deposits can be expelled, thus relieving pain and soreness. Counting neither cost nor Sacrifice.

Measuring only Service and Devotion.

IN time of peace, all over civilization, the Red Cross, drawn by great need, has consecrated itself to the task of active, vigilant, comprehensive service to these high ideals:

THE IMPROVEMENT OF HEALTH.

THE PREVENTION OF DISEASE.

THE MITIGATION OF SUFFERING THROUGHOUT THE WORLD.

In Manitoba, in Saskatchewan, and in Alberta, the Red Cross has undertaken broad and effective programmes that will not only lead to these ends, but will in their progress and accomplishment make our communities better places to live in, brighten our lives, improve our material welfare, and help weld all the people of our prairies into a brotherhood of common sympathies.

And so also in all the other Provinces of our Dominion, and in every land and clime that knows the crimson badge of mercy.

And this is also a call to every citizen who can and will, to give their service to the organization, to assist in the work of personally extending to every individual the opportunity and privilege of this membership.

Old Fort Ellis and Sioux Indians

Crossing the Plains to Fort Carlton

Summer 1875.

By O-G-E-MAS-ES (Little Clerk).

The husband of the insulted woman was particularly bloodthirsty and quite mad with rage. The young braves backed him up and were searching everywhere for A—; no doubt it would have gone hard with him if his hiding place had been discovered. Our interpreter talked until he was hoarse trying to make some sort of settlement that night; they however would not treat. They would not smoke, but clamored for the guilty man and threatened to burn the fort over our heads. Of course we could on no account surrender him to their far from tender mercies. Next day, by good luck, Chief Factor McDonald returned sooner than expected and there was a Grand Council held in the large Indian room of the fort, some forty of the leading Sioux being present.

It was a fine sight and quite an education for us youngsters to see this thin spare Scotchman walking up and down before the assembled warriors and rating them as if they were a lot of school boys. I only remember the general tenor of his remarks which were chiefly delivered through an interpreter, though at times he would break into broken Sioux interspersed with Gaelic and Cree.

The speech follows:

"Did you never play the fool yourselves when full of fire water? The woman is not hurt. What is all this fuss about? You wait until my back is turned and then rush in here at night trying to scarce everybody." Shaking his first at them, "I tell you, Sioux, if you are not more civil I will report you to the Queen's Red Coat Soldiers at Fort Pelly. You cannot go back across the line as the Big Knives are waiting for you there. The Sioux nation will be wiped out like this" (clapping his hands together), and so on in much the same strain.

McDonald was right. The Mounted Police were being organized at Fort Pelly that summer and the very fact of their red coats (whose numbers of course were very much exaggerated) had created a tremendous impression amongst all the Indian tribes.

After a long pow-wow, the damage to the Sioux husband's injured feelings was compensated by a substantial payment, which amount was duly charged to the guilty clerk's account, while he was smuggled out of the fort and sent back to his post with orders to stay there. Poor sinner, the company put up with his failings for some years and then dismissed him, and from that his course was downward.

A peculiar incident took place with the Sioux a little later on. A small band of Crees had come in from the plains and camped on the west side of the fort (the Sioux were on the east). They were well supplied with buffalo robes, dried meat and pemican, also lots of ponies. This was very attractive to the Sioux who were as poor as the Crees were well off. They finally made friendly overtures to the Crees, which were accepted, and then challenged them to a great gamble, which was promptly taken up. I had never watched any Indian gambling so was very much interested and had young McKay explain the procedure, which was simply a matter of guessing right or to which hand held the button or whatever was used.

(Copyrighted)

The players, some eight or ten in number, sat opposite one another in a large tepee, their laps covered with a colored blanket. Tom-toms were beating gently, louder, then furiously, while a continued "A-ha, A-ha" song went on in chorus. The hands were concealed, then waved in the air, and finally held rigid when the opponent made his choice. The stakes were all piled up in plain sight. I specially noted an elderly blind Sioux sitting behind their players. He they constantly referred to when big stakes were up and invariably won. So much so, that after playing all night the Crees were beaten to a finish, losing nearly all their wealth. The fame of the blind Sioux spread far and wide, and though many Indians came in to try their fortunes, they were invariably losers. Was it telepathy, mind reading, or what? Anyway with his prophetic insight he revived the fortunes of the Sioux, and they shortly moved camp and I heard no more of them.

These Sioux, or Dacotah Indians, were not a pleasant people. Many of both sexes were handsome, but they nearly all had a hard, fierce expression, and a pleasant face was a rarity. Their tepees were scrupulously clean and tidily kept, and they were all very particular about their personal appearance. One could not forget in dealing with them that their hands were red with much innocent blood of white people, and when it came to torturing helpless prisoners the women, it was claimed were the worst offenders.

The Grand Yearly Council of the Hudson's Bay Company had been sitting at Fort Carlton and we were all anxiously waiting for the return of Chief Commissioner Donald A. Smith, and at last he and his party, driving furiously as usual with relays of ponies all along the route making from eighty to one hundred and twenty-five miles daily, arrived at Ellis. They only stayed for dinner, having over the minutes of council affecting Swan River to Mr. McDonald, and then pushed on to Fort Gary. Next day I was summoned to the office and informed that I had been ordered by council to Fort Simpson on the MacKenzie River. Mr. McDonald, remarking drily, that the temperature up there would tend to cool my tropical blood. His last remark, however, made me furious. "You will leave your dogs here as they cannot go in the boats; and now you can go. Well, I loved these dogs as a brother, and the dogs they worshipped me, and to be separated from them was a heart break. I had referred to this train in a former article. Part Husky, part Scotch Stag Hound, in shape and size they took after the Scotch father. Herod, Nero, Hero and Moro, a very famous train, and no doubt when I travelled in company with the chief factor last winter he had noted qualities and desired to have them for his own. I had bought these dogs as pups, reared and trained them, speared fish enough to feed them in odd hours, and by hook or crook I intended keeping them.

Edward Brown, provincial treasurer.

In the meantime, Mr. Brown announced, the Government has heard nothing from the new owners as to their intention in connection with the proposal to build a railway to the mine. He was, however, of the opinion that it was their intention to proceed at once with development work, with a view to putting the properties on a producing basis.

WIND ON THE STOMACH Quickly Relieved

It is a good thing to know just what to do when gas belching starts. One sufferer related the following experience: "A few months ago I ate some green vegetables and some fruit that was not quite ripe. It brought on indigestion, hiccoughs, nausea and cramps. I belched gas continually. A neighbor urged me to use 'Nervine.' I took it in hot sweetened water and got quick relief. I will never again be without this valuable remedy." Nervine is a household necessity large 35c bottles sold everywhere.

Reported That Don Cossacks Have Joined Anti-Bolshevik Leader.

Copenhagen.—The special correspondent of the Belingske Tidende at Helsingfors says he learns that the peasant revolt in Southern Russia is spreading like wildfire. The reports say the Governments of Tambov, Voronezh, Kursk and Samara, are in the hands of the rebels and the fall of Kharkov is imminent. Divisions eight and nine of the Bolshevik army, sent to the relief of Kharkov, both were cut off from their base of operations. The Don Cossacks have joined General Antonoff, the anti-Bolshevik leader.

The revolt is said to be extremely serious for the Soviet Government, the districts affected being the richest in Russia.

Grain Barges Looted

Foodstuffs for Vienna Are Sold to Illicit Dealers.

Vienna.—Wholesale looting of grain barges bound from Jugo Slavia to Vienna, has led to more than 100 arrests. According to the newspapers the sailors have an arrangement with illicit dealers. They sound the siren to indicate what kind of cargo they carry, the smugglers put off in boats and buy all their want, which is resold through the left-hand trade at an advance.

More than 50 carloads of foodstuffs are reported to have been thus looted.

Death of Venerable Priest

Father Dandurand Maintained His Faculties to Very Last.

Winnipeg.—Rev. Father Damase Dandurand, O.M.I., who on March 23 last celebrated the 102nd anniversary of his birth, died on Wednesday at St. Boniface, Man. He was the oldest Catholic priest in the world, being born on March 23, 1819 in the village of La Prairie, Que., of pure French parentage.

The aged priest has been an active worker in the priesthood since the day of his ordination nearly 80 years ago. He was the first French-Canadian to enter the order of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate, that band of devoted missionaries who were practically responsible for all of the pioneer work of the Roman Catholic Church in the west.

The venerable priest played an important role at Ottawa about 47 years ago, where he was vicar general of the then diocese.

Select Laxative Medicine With Great Care

In debility and weakness, medicine should be mild and gentle. Many pills and purgatives are too hard, are drastic instead of curative. Excessive action is always followed by depression, and knowing this Dr. Hamilton advised his pills of Mandarin and Butternut so as to mildly increase liver and kidney activity, so as to build up the system by toning and regulating the bowels. Thus Dr. Hamilton's Pills eliminate poisons from the body, thus do they restore clearness to the skin, thus do they renew health and strength. To keep your system in healthy good working order, regulate it with Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25c all dealers or The Catarrhazone Co., Montreal.

TOBACCO HEART

Every Smoker Read This

Tobacco does not seem to affect all alike. Many men enjoy their smoke, live to a good old age, and apparently suffer no ill-effects from the use of the weed.

There are others though, on whose heart and nervous system tobacco produces the most serious results.

It causes palpitation, pain in the heart, and irregularity of its beat, makes the hands tremble, sets the nerves on edge, and causes shortness of breath and loss of sleep.

To counteract this demoralizing influence on the heart and nerves there is no remedy so equal as Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

They make the heart beat strong and steady, restore tone and vigor to the nerves, and remove all the evil results caused by the tobacco.

Mr. D. McKillop, Coxheath, N.S., writes:—I was using too much tobacco, and got so I could not sleep at night, my hands used to tremble something awful, and I suffered terrible from pains in my heart. I told a friend about it, and he advised me to get your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I took two boxes and they gave great satisfaction.

Price 50c a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Ottawa Hen Breaks Record Set Up In Kansas and Regina.

The heroic efforts of a Westboro, Ont., hen to produce a titanic egg have eclipsed the Kansas and Regina hens recently heard from. Recently, this hen, a White Leghorn, laid an egg which weighed slightly over a quarter of a pound and was eight and a half inches long and six and a half inches in narrow circumference. Both weight and dimensions break the record made by the Regina hen, whose product was on the wrong side of a quarter of a pound by an eighth, the narrow circumference being only six inches.

NERVOUS PEOPLE NEED A TONIC

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Enrich the Blood, Thus Increasing Your Nervous Energy.

Nervous people who have not yet developed a disease that can be recognized and treated by the medical profession, often have great trouble in finding relief. Irritation, headache, sleeplessness, nervous heartiness. All these discomforts make life miserable, but are endured rather than run a doctor's bill.

Such sufferers should know the danger of such a condition, which, if allowed to persist, may result in a nervous breakdown. In this condition what is needed is rich, red blood. As a tonic for the blood and nerves, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been used with much success. They have a direct action on the blood, and through it carry to the nerves the elements needed to restore their normal function, at the same time improving the general health. The benefits that follow the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is shown by the case of Mrs. Norman Seifried, West Montrose, Ont., who says: "It would be hard for me to overstate the benefit I have derived from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Before I began taking the pills I was very nervous, weak and run down. I could hardly do my housework, and as there is a great deal of work to do about a home on a farm, I felt very much discouraged. One day while reading a newspaper I saw an advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to give them a trial. I could notice beneficial effects after taking a box of the pills, I could again do my work with ease, was no longer weak or nervous, slept well at night, and awoke in the morning feeling well and strong. I am happy to say that the pills so greatly benefited me."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers in medicine or will be sent by mail on receipt of 50 cents a box or $2.50 for six boxes by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

How Kronstadt Was Captured.

How the offensive developed is generally known. Trotsky's first attack was a failure, but he adopted other methods. By means of sham attacks he allowed part of his troops to run over to the enemy, and when night time came he launched his main attack, during which the defenders were attacked from behind by the sham defectors.—New York Tribune.

Costly Bolshev Propaganda.

According to information from Bolshevik official sources the Moscow Government spends about 2,000,000 marks in gold monthly on its propaganda in Germany. The expenses for propaganda in England, where about 1,000 Bolshevik agents are working, amount to 24,000 pounds sterling monthly.

Minard's Liniment For Dandruff

Picturesque Gown For Bridesmaid

By Marie Belmont.

At present there is a decided tendency toward the period when the billowy skirt held sway. This mode is cleverly interpreted in the bridesmaid's dress of blue radium silk. Its bouffant folds are elaborated with cart-wheels of exquisite lace. The petticoats of tulle and organdie are outlined and elaborated with much lace. This, too, is set in several rows about the little net tucker that gives such a pleasing line to the décolletage. The puffed sleeves are made entirely of lace, while the formal bouquet of pink rosebuds is enriched with ribbon streamers. Bright green, rose, periwinkle and honeysuckle are their colors.

B.C. Forest Fires

During Last Year 390,000 Acres of Timber Were Burned.

Statistics compiled by the forest branch of the Provincial Government show that during last year 390,000 acres of timber were burned in British Columbia. This represents a loss of 236,000,000 feet, valued at $299,000. The damage to young growth is estimated at $186,000, or a total of $485,000, as compared with $393,000 in 1919. Of the season's fire 345, or 28 per cent, were caught and extinguished before they had reached a quarter of an acre in size, and 391, or 31 per cent, were extinguished before they had reached ten acres. Wireless telephones were tried out with satisfactory results.

The Hand of Fellowship.

After all, it would indeed be a barren victory if the co-operation of Great Britain and the United States in arms were to be followed by estrangement and veiled hostility. Fortunately all the signs point to the development of a cordial spirit of comradeship between the two nations notwithstanding the somewhat formidable list of problems which confronts them and the malignant efforts of certain people to use that list for ignoble purposes of division and strife.—London Morning Post

Toy Factory at Coast.

The manufacture of toys from British Columbia materials, will be commenced in Vancouver shortly by a company which was recently incorporated with a half million dollars capital. It is the intention of the company to confine manufacture to toys and doll houses.

The Church and Its Work

By The Rev. W. S. Wickenden

Worship is not simply hearing sermons. It is the offering to God of thanksgiving and prayer for ourselves and others;
whether in private or in public, worship should be orderly and reverent, and should be in accordance with God's Holy Word

To worship God acceptably the presence of God's Holy spirit is essential. And that Presence is granted to "them that ask."

"O go your way into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise: be thankful unto Him, and speak good of His Name."
(Psalm 100. 3.)

Waiting Means Losing

Real Economy Says:

If you need a new implement this year
"Buy It."

Suppose that the use of a new implement this season would save you $100.00

How much Will you lose by not buying that implement this spring?

How much will the implement really cost you if you wait until next year to buy it?

It will really cost you the market price, then PLUS THE ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS LOST IN NOT HAVING THE IMPLEMENT IN USE THIS SEASON.

But--be sure you get good implements---
